

I would like the FCC to hold local hearings across the country on increasing the number of low power FM community radio stations licensed and to reduce the power and consolidation of Big Media.